Why Are Reading This Document?

I assume you want to make money from blogging. If you are not – then this PDF is probably not a good use of your time . . . If you want to have fun while making money from your blog, then use this sheet to get started with choosing a topic. That’s the first step right?

While it is possible to create a blog just for the profit, the best blogs are based on something you're passionately interested in. That passion will shine through in your content and in your advertising. It will keep you motivated on days when it's hard to get yourself going. And, ultimately, it will result in a high quality, highly profitable blog that people love to visit. Just jot down whatever comes to mind. Don’t revise it.

What am I interested In?

What Makes Me Angry or Make My Skin Crawl?

What Makes Me Feel All Tingly Inside?

What’s My Favorite Food or Drink?

What Are People Always Asking Me To Do For Them?

What Do I Consider Myself A Master At?

What Kinds Of Books Do I Read?

What Are My Hobbies?

I hope this sheet gets your creative mind going. I know it's in you. Remember, this is the most important and one of the hardest steps involved in making money with your blog. You may need to keep this sheet handy because once you've found your topic you'll have to do some research to determine whether or not it's a profitable one. You wouldn't want to put all that work into it if it isn't profitable. With that said, make sure you sign up to stay informed at www.MakeMoneyFromHomeBlogging.com.
